BOOK SNAPSHOT

A heartwarming tale of a King who gives away his most treasured possession in an effort to save his kingdom. Betrayal, lies, and doubt pit a King against his daughter, the princess, when she ventures outside the castle walls and into the forbidden forest, where temptation leaves her pregnant with a child.

SALES / SHELF POSITION

- For readers drawn to inspirational fiction, Christian allegory, fairy tales of morality and sacrificial love.
- A strong fit for book clubs that enjoy honest, reflective life stories that invite conversation about what we see in others.
- Keywords: Christian fable; allegory; adoption; fatherhood; kingdom story; temptation; forgiveness; heavenly father; princesses.

DISCUSSION VALUE

- Ideal for groups interested in how grace responds when love is wounded and trust is broken.
- Core questions: What is the difference between justice and mercy? What does a father owe a child who has betrayed him? What makes love costly?
- Companion materials include discussion questions, reflective prompts, and creative exercises centered on kingdom, heart, and home.

APPEARANCES / SPEAKING AVAILABILITY

- Available for book-club discussions, library events, bookstore conversations, podcast interviews, and short author talks.
